II. GIMNAZIJA MARIBOR

2019

Drugajanje je leta 2002 nastalo kot odgovor na vrzel v kulturni ponudbi za mlade – že takrat je bila vrzel na področju uprizoritvene umetnost največja pri sodobnem plesu in pa pri sodobnem gledališču, ki se iznika dramskemu gledališču in klasičnim formatom.

Letos, na 18. Drugajanju lahko spet ugotovimo, da je sodobni ples še vedno »vrzel«, zato tokratni program zaznamuje prav – ples. Zaznamuje pa ga tudi sodelovanje; torej ples in sodelovanje – kako prikladno, ko ravno sodobni ples zaznamuje raziskovanje različnih sodelovanj.

V Grosse Erwartungen se Beton Ltd., avtorski kolektiv, deloma odreka besedi in svojo predstavo gradi na koreografiji, skozi katero se lotevajo identitetnih politik.

Heraja bosta v že tretji predstavi, ki bo premierno uprizorjena prav na Drugajanju, prav tako šla »onstran besed« in nagovorila temo identitetnih politik. Sredina predstava Samo za danes, ki jo organiziramo v sodelovanju s programom Nagib na oder, ki v Maribor kontinuirano vabi sodobni ples, je presežek lanske plesne sezone in se tudi ukvarja – s sodelovanjem, strukturo skupnega dela. Predstavo Poésis sebstva je na festivalu prav zato, ker smo jo izbrali v sodelovanju s Klubom mladih selektoric, ki so predstavo označile kot izviv za svojo generacijo. Drugajanje vabi na še en plesni festival, ki v istem času poteka v Ljubljani – vabimo na izlet na CoFestival ter dve predstavi in film.

Drugajanje se tako izpostavlja kot križišče sodelovanj – med umetniki, producenti, organizacijami – naj postane tudi križišče med umetnostjo in občinstvi!

In 2002, Drugajanje was conceived as a response to a void in the cultural landscape for the young – already back then, the void in the performing arts was the largest in contemporary dance and contemporary theatre, which evades dramatheatre and classical formats. This year, at the 18th Drugajanje festival, we can once again conclude that contemporary dance is still a »void«. And this is why this year's programme is dominated by dance. It is also marked by cooperation; so, dance and cooperation – how convenient, considering it is precisely contemporary dance that is characterized by exploration of different types of cooperation. In Grosse Erwartungen, Beton Ltd. collective are partly giving up the text and build their performance on choreography, using it to address identity politics.

In their third performance, which will premiere right here, at Drugajanje, the Heroes will also go »beyond words«, also addressing the topic of identity politics. Wednesday's performance, Just for Today, organized in collaboration with the »Nagib on Stage« program, which is continuously bringing contemporary dance to Maribor, builds on the last year's dance season, also dealing with cooperation, the structure of teamwork. Poésis of Self is part of the festival precisely because it was chosen in collaboration with the Young Curators Club, who selected the performance as a challenge for their generation.

Drugajanje invites you to another dance festival, taking place in Ljubljana at the same time. We are inviting you for a trip to CoFestival with two performances and a film.

Drugajanje thus stands out as a crossroad of cooperations – between artists, producers, organizations – let it also become a crossroad between art and audiences!

II. GIMNAZIJA MARIBOR

Letošnje Drugajanje se v jeziku mladih imenuje »osemnajstka«: je osemnajsto po vrsti in s tem polnoletno. Prehodilo je dolgo pot in se spremenjalo, vendar je zmeraj ostalo zvesto sebi: seznanjalo je mlade z različnimi oblikami gledališke, plesne in alternativne umetnosti ter skozi predstave odpiralo aktualne probleme, družbe in tudi umetnosti. Letošnje Drugajanje zaznamuje sodelovanje umetnikov in institucij; na svoj način vključuje tudi občinstvo. Sodelovanje je danes tema, ki postaja zmeraj bolj aktualna in pomembna. Egoizem tako na ravni posameznikov kot držav postaja vodilna paradigm. Zadovoljevanje svojih interesov na račun drugih je postal vsakdanja praksa, pa naj velja to za migrantsko ali okoljsko problematiko, nastajajo velikanske neenakosti med družbenimi sloji.

Letošnje Drugajanje postavlja sodelovanje v ospredje. Upati je le, da se nas bo tako zelo dotaknilo, da se takrat, ko bo potrebno, ne bomo obrnili stran.

Lepo »osemnajstko«, Drugajanje!

In the lingo of the young, this year's Drugajanje is called »No. 18«: it celebrates its eighteenth birthday and has thus come of age. It has travelled a long way, changing itself in the process, but has always remained faithful to itself: it introduced the young to various forms of theatre, dance and alternative arts, using performances to raise the pressing issues of both society and art.

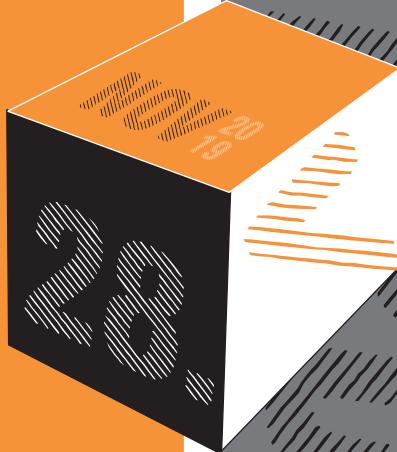

This year's Drugajanje is marked by cooperation of both artists and institutions, also including the audience in its own way. Today, cooperation is a topic that is becoming increasingly popular and important. Egoism, both at the individual as well as at the state level, is becoming a leading paradigm. Satisfying one's interests at the expense of others has become a common practice, be it in immigration or environmental issues, creating enormous inequalities among the social classes.

This year's Drugajanje puts cooperation at the forefront. One can only hope that we will be touched in a way that will make us not turn away when we are needed.

I wish you a pleasant »No. 18«, Drugajanje!

KRAJINE ALI PEJSĀŽI OBČUTENEGA EMOTIONAL LANDSCAPES

»Ne vemo, kaj gostoljubje je.«

Jacques Derrida, Of Hospitality

Derridajeva ambivalentna raba francoske besede »hôte«, ki pomeni zdaj »gostitelj« spet drugič »gost« je konceptualno izhodišče za nastanek tekstilnih izdelkov oziroma torb pod nazivom Hôte in so del etične blagovne znamke v nastajanju. Torbe Hôte tako niso preprosto končni cilj ali končni produkt dela večjega projekta Akupara, v okviru katerega so različni ustvarjalci izdelovali oz. oblikovali izdelke s priseljenci in begunci. Sam cilj projekta je namena, da se vzpostavi skupen prostor med »gostitelji« in »gosti«, stičišče izkušenj, praks in veščin takoj »gostiteljev« kot »gostov« ter obenem razvije etična in »zero-waste« blagovna znamka, s katero bodo begunci in migranti lahko izrazili svojo ustvarjalnost ter tako vstopili tudi na sam trg dela.

Instalacija Krajine ali pejsaži občutnega/Emotional Landscapes je del večjega projekta Akupara: inkubator rokodelstva, zadružništva in kulturne produkcije s priseljenci in begunci, ki ga vodi Društvo Terra Vera iz Kostanjevice na Krki, v sodelovanju s partnerji: Društvo Nagib, CAAP in Prostor vmes.

»We do not know [yet] what hospitality is.«

Jacques Derrida, Of Hospitality

Derrida's ambivalent use of the French word »hôte«, meaning »host«, but also »guest«, is a conceptual starting point for the creation of textile products and bags under the brand Hôte, part of an emerging ethical brand. Thus, Hôte bags are not simply the final goals or the end product of the bigger Akupara project, which featured various creators making and designing bags with immigrants and refugees. The aim of the project is to establish a common space between »hosts« and »guests«, an intersection of experiences, practices and skills of both »hosts« and »guests«, while developing an ethical and »zerowaste« brand which could be used by refugees and migrants to express their creativity and thus enter the labour market themselves.

The installation Emotional Landscapes is part of the larger project, Akupara: The Incubator of Handicrafts, Social Cooperatives and Cultural Productions for immigrants and refugees, run by the Terra Vera Association from Kostanjevica na Krki in collaboration with partners: Association Nagib, CAAP and The Space In Between.

PREDSTAVA PERFORMANCE

BETONI LTD.

| VELIKA PRIČAKOVANJA | BIG EXPECTATIONS

60 MINUT MINUTES

Beton Ltd. so avtorski kolektiv; Katarina Stegnar, Primož Bezjak in Branko Jordan. Große Erwartungen|Velika pričakovanja je njihova šesta predstava, druga v njihovem t. i. nemškem ciklu. Pravijo, da predstavo vedno začnejo s točke nič, a ključni za vznik predstave iz nič so za Beton Ltd. skoraj vedno osebni oprijemki; v naracije in dileme ne vstopajo samo prek posamičnih zgodb, ampak prek osebnih. »Samo o sebi lahko upravičeno govorimo«. Po ekologiji, tranzicijsko – odraščanjskem izgubljanju iluzij, nemoči upora, generacijskem angsttu ... se tokrat lotevajo velikih pričakovanj ter prihodnosti. In kaj so pričakovanja drugega kot projekcije sedanjih želja? »Želja evropske, bele, heteroseksualne, urbane, kozmopolitske, nadreprezentirane generacije. A pri tem ne smemo pozabiti: Katarina, Primož, Branko ... vsi smo bili nekoč otroci. Slovenski otroci. Nekateri so še vedno.«

Beton Ltd. are a collective of authors: Katarina Stegnar, Primož Bezjak and Branko Jordan. Große Erwartungen|Great Expectations is their sixth performance, second in their so called German cycle. They say they always begin a performance from ground zero, but for a performance to emerge from nothing, personal grips are almost always of key importance for them. They do not enter narrations and dilemmas through individual stories alone, but also through personal ones. »We can only legitimately speak about ourselves.« After ecology, transitional/growingup loss of illusions, the impotency of resistance, generational angst, they are now dealing with the topic of great expectations and future. And what are expectations if not projections of present desires? »The desires of a European, white, heterosexual, urban, cosmopolitan, overrepresented generation. But we must not forget: Katarina, Primož, Branko ... we were all children once. Slovenian children. Some still are.«

UROŠ KAURIN & VITO WEIS

HEROJ 3.0 - VEČ KOT BESEDE HERO 3.0 - MORE THAN WORDS

Kdo in kaj postaneta Heroja, ko se pripeljeta onstran besed?

Vemo samo, da sta bela, heteroseksualna, cis-spolna, srednjerazredna, družinska moška. Eden je poročen, drugi ima nepremičnino.

Občinstvo je povsem prepričano, da sta najboljša prijatelja tudi zasebno, ne samo na odru, ampak Vito in Uroš ne roštiljata skupaj, njuni družini ne hodita skupaj na morje, ne delita si jadrnice, ne dobivata se na basketu, poslušata različno glasbo, dobro, enkrat letno formalni piknik ali družinsko kosilo ... In to je to.

Pa vendar med njima visi nekaj, nekaj česar si ne upata priznati. Vsaj ne na glas. Zato sta se odločila, da je konec diktata besede. To je nekaj, na kar ne moreta več pristati. Besede so postale nepotrebne in vsiljive.

In samo na odru in pred pričami si upata zarezati v tkivo neizrekljivega. Z izgovorom, da oder vse prenese, da je vse lažno in nič resnično.

Vprašanje pa je, koliko tega lahko občinstvo pogoltne, ne da bi za vedno izgubilo fantazme o idealnem partnerstvu, ker če bi gledalci vedeli, kako rada se imata Vito in Uroš, ne bi nikoli več z istimi očmi gledali nobene druge predstave.

Who and what becomes of Heroes when they arrive beyond words?

We know that they are just white, heterosexual, cissexual, middleclass, family men. One is married, the other one has a real estate.

The audience is absolutely convinced that they are best friends not only on stage, but also in their private lives. But Vito and Uroš do not get together for a barbecue, they don't go on family holidays together, they don't share a boat, they don't meet for a game of basketball, they listen to different music, OK, there is a formal picnic or a family lunch once a year ... But this is it.

And yet there is something between them that they don't dare to admit. Well, not out loud, at least. So they decided they will end the dictate of the word. It is something they cannot accept. Words became unnecessary and intrusive.

Only on stage and in front of witnesses do they dare to cut into the fabric of the unspeakable, making use of the excuse that the stage allows everything, that everything is fake and nothing is real.

But it remains to be seen how much of it the audience can digest, without forever losing the fantasy of an ideal partnership. For if the viewers knew how much Vito and Uroš like each other, they would never see another performance in the same way again.

MAJA DELAK

SAMO ZA DANES ONLY FOR TODAY

60 MINUT MINUTES

Samo za danes je navidezno počasna instantna kompozicija, kjer avtorice pogledu namerno izpostavljajo manj vidne, manj očitne materialnosti, telesnosti, stanja. V preminjajočem in ponovno nastajajočem prostoru zvočnih pokrajin sta izhodiščna principa sprotno pogajanje in dogovarjanje različnih gledišč, tudi z občinstvom.

»Nova predstava Maje Delak in njenih soplesalk je polna gibalne tišine. Zahteva čuječega gledalca, ki zmore prisluhniti subtilnim sporočilom giba, ki raziskuje samega sebe.« Ana Rozman

»Predstava tako, kot piše tudi v gledališkem listu, ne postreže s klimaksom, zato pa gotovo potrka na občutljivost gledalca in ga pripravi do tega, da investira pomene, išče svoje vrhove, vzpostavi afinitete in prek minljive strukture ter minljivih teles za trenutek globlje občuti lastno minljivost. Brez obžalovanja.« Pia Brezavšček, Dnevnik

Just for Today is a seemingly slow-moving instant composition intentionally crafted to bring to view the less visible, less conspicuous materialities, embodiments, physical states. The underlying principle in the ever oscillating and re-emerging space of sound landscapes is the ongoing negotiation of different perspectives, also with the audience.

»The new performance of Maja Delak and her co-dancers is full of moving silence. It requires a hearing spectator who can listen to the subtle messages of a movement exploring itself.« Ana Rozman

»The performance thus, as is stated also in the programme notes, does not offer a climax; however, it does appeal to the viewer's sensitivity, binding her to invest meanings, search for climaxes, constitute affinities, and – through the elusive structure and the transient bodies – for a moment make her feel her own transience more deeply. With no regrets.« Pia Brezavšček, Dnevnik

FIZIČNE SLEDI PHYSICAL TRACES

SLEDIJO PREDSTAVI MAJE DELAK:
SAMO ZA DANES FOLLOWS THE PERFORMANCE
ONLY FOR TODAY BY MAJA DELAK

30 MINUT MINUTES

Fizične sledi je participatorni format, namenjen občinstvu, ki gledalca povabi v refleksijo izkušnje gledanja. Z vodenimi navodili se skupaj počasi sprehodimo po spominu, po vtisih in občutkih, ki ostajajo v nas po predstavi. Fizična izkušnja odpre prostor neverbalnega, prostor, kjer se vtisi in pomeni pretočijo skozi naša telesa, in tokrat nas slednja vodijo skozi utelešen »pogovor« s predstavo. Kako in kaj čutijo naša gledalska telesa, ko obrnemo pozornost nanje?

Fizične sledi so del programskega sklopa Nagib k refleksiji in festivala Drugajanje.

Physical Traces is a participatory format designed for the audience, which invites the viewer to reflect on the viewing experience. Following guiding instructions, we take a slow journey through our memory, our impressions and feeling that remain in us after the performance. Physical experience opens up a space of the nonverbal, a space where impressions and meanings flow through our bodies. This time, the latter guide us through the embodied »conversation« with the performance. What do viewers' bodies feel when we focus our attention on them?

Physical traces are a part of the Nagib to reflection programme and Drugajanje Festival.

UPRIZARJANJE ZVOKA IN GLASBE PERFORMING SOUND AND MUSIC WORKSHOP

Z glasbeno scensko delavnico bomo podrezali v vprašanje »Kaj je glasba?«. Tako kot sodobna glasba bo tudi delavnica odpirala vprašanja in iskala odgovore.

Sodobna glasba pričakuje dejavnega poslušalca. Spodbuja radovednost, naslavljajo domišljijo, zahteva razmišljanje, izziva dojemanje, vznemirja samoumevnost, neti dvom, krši pravila, množi razbiranja, kritično komentira, se igra s pričakovanji, proži asociacije in tvega polom. Sodobna glasba ni nujno všečna in ne želi po vsej sili le ugajati.

Obiskovalcu je prepuščena pozicija soustvarjalca skozi neposredno odzivanje, njemu lastno doživljanje in interpretiranje.

Skupaj z dijaki bomo pripravili javno predstavitev – zvočni uprizoritveni dogodek, v katerem bomo uporabili različna zvočila, elektronske naprave, video, telo idr.

»Shift je performativni format, ki v obdobju 2018 -2022 evidentira sistemski vrzeli na štirih tematskih področjih: zdravje, znanje, delo, pravica. Shift se giblje znotraj institucij zdravstva, sociale, prava in izobraževanja. Shift ne izumlja. Shift evidentira evidentno. Shift uprizarja s tistimi in za tiste, ki v teh ustanovah delajo in živijo.«

We will make use of the music and stage workshop to look into the question »What is music?«. Similarly to contemporary music, the workshop will raise questions and search for answers. Contemporary music expects an active listener. It stimulates curiosity, addresses imagination, requires thinking, incites perception, disturbs the obvious, fuels skepticism, breaks rules, multiplies readings, critically comments, plays with expectations, provokes associations , and risks failure. Contemporary music is not necessarily pleasant, and does not try to please at all costs.

The visitor is left with the role of cocreator through direct response, their own experience and interpretation.

We will prepare a public presentation – a sound performance event together with students, in which we will use various sound sources, electronic devices, video, body, etc.

»Shift is a performative format that in the period 2018–2022 will focus on systemic gaps of four topics: health, knowledge, work, justice. Shift moves within the health, social, law and education institutions. Shift does not invent. Shift is an evidence of the evident. Shift performs with those and for those who work and live in these institutions.«

Predstava Poēsis sebstva je nadaljevalna faza procesa, ki ga je Snježana Premuš začela s Fizičnimi manifestacijami med letoma 2012 in 2015. V seriji predstavitev studijskih procesov, ki jih je vodila z različnimi plesalci, je k sodelovanju povabila gledalce različnih profilov, poklicev in strok, da bi skupaj z njimi ugotovila, kako je telesno kreiranje percepcijskih podob sporočljivo, kaj proizvaja, kako se bere in kaj ostaja očesu nevidno. Na predstavivah in pogovorih je sodeloval tudi plesni kritik, zgodovinar in arhivar sodobnega plesa Rok Vevar. V letu 2016 sta se odločila, da se zapreta v studio in začneta deliti svoje prakse. Na podlagi tega je nastala predstava Poēsis sebstva, strukturirana kot serija situacij, v katerih se neinvazivna aktivnost gledalcev in akterjev izpostavlja izkustvenim možnostim pretvorb telesa v jezik in jezika v telo na mestih, kjer je telo vselej že jezik in jezik zaloga telesa.

»Plesno 'predstavo' Poēsis sebstva, ki jo je plesalka in koreografinja Snježana Premuš ustvarila v sodelovanju s plesnim teoretikom Rokom Vevarjem, bi lahko označili kot fluidno instalacijo gibajočih se in čutečih teles v prostoru.« Nika Arhar

The performance Poēsis of Self is a follow up phase of process initiated by Snježana Premuš with Physical Manifestations in the period 2012–2015. In a series of presentations of study processes led by the choreographer with different dancers, audience of different profiles, professions and disciplines were invited to participate with a view to establish together how the physical creation of the perception images is expressive, what it produces, how it reads, and what may remain invisible to the eye. Dance critic, historian and contemporary dance archivist Rok Vevar also participated in these presentations and discussions. In 2016, Premuš and Vevar decided to lock themselves in the studio and start sharing their practices with each other. The performance Poēsis of Self, which arose from these meetings, is structured in a series of situations in which the non-invasive activity of the audience and performers is subject to experiential possibilities of converting the body into language and vice versa in places where a body is always already a language, and a language is a resource of the body.

»The dance 'performance' Poēsis of Self, created by dancer and choreographer Snježana Premuš in co-operation with dance theoretician Rok Vevar, could be described as a fluid installation of moving, sentient bodies in space.« Nika Arhar

KURATORSKA IZJAVA

PREDSTAVA POÉSIS SEBSTA

Izbor predstave Poésis sebstva je rezultat triletnega izobraževalnega procesa združenega izobraževalnega programa za perspektivne umetniške kuratorke in kuratorje Gledališča Glej in Zavoda Bunker, vodil ga je Samo Selimović. Triletni izobraževalni praktikum je združeval oglede predstav v Sloveniji s predavanji kuratorjev in selektorjev ter teoretskimi seminarji o gledališču, umetnosti in procesih kuriranja.

Ekipa, ki se je v treh letih delovanja programa formirala v Klub mladih selektoric, je dobila priložnost izbrati programsko enoto festivala Druganje. Izbor je potekal na podlagi predpostavke, da mladi gledališče vidimo in doživljamo drugače in da bo program, ki ga oblikuje in podpiše mladinska selektorska ekipa, mlaude nagovoril drugače, bolj iskreno, bolj pristno, bolj neposredno, kot pa program, ki ga oblikuje strokovno že usposobljena profesionalna gledališka selektorica. Selektorska ekipa to stališče ceni, saj brez njega ne bi bilo Kluba mladih selektoric, ki na področju kulture ali mladinskega dela v Sloveniji nima primerljivega formata, vendar ga je v procesu selekcije večkrat problematizirala. Med procesom izbire se je namreč večkrat soočila s programskimi odločitvami drugih organizacij, festivalov, selektorjev in kuratorjev, ki selekcijo »za mlade« enačjo s selekcijo, ki je bolj enostavna in neposredna ter raje ne preveč zahtevna in ambiciozna. Za mlade ljubitelje gledališča je takšno programsko izhodišče sporno in do mladega občinstva podcenjujoče. Prav zato je bil neizrečen kriterij med mnogimi, ki so vplivali na končno izbiro predstave, tudi ta, da predstava ne sme biti »še ena predstava za mlade«. Klub mladih selektoric je kot odgovor površnim interpretacijam »mladinskega« na oder Druge gimnazije povabil ustvarjalce Poésis sebstva.

Izbor predstave, ki gledalca sili v razmislek o odnosu med telesom, prostorom in mislijo, do mladih obiskovalcev ni podcenjujoč. Množica teoretskih referenc, izjav, gibalnih vložkov in drugih elementov gledalcu ponudi več možnih referenčnih točk, kot pa jih je sposoben predelati v času trajanja predstave, njegova umeščenost v uprizoritveni prostor pa ga sili v kontinuiran premislek o svojem položaju v prostoru in v predstavi. Poésis sebstva je v ekipi sprožil več vprašanj, kot pa je dal odgovorov, nekatere situacije na odru pa so različne selektorice pripeljale do popolnoma različnih interpretacij in uvidov. Različne situacije, ki sta jih postavila avtorja in kompleksnost različnih sporočil lahko v gledalcu z manj gledališke kilometrine gotovo sprožijo negotovost. Takšno negotovost smo mlade selektorice občutile na mnogih predstavah, ki smo si jih ogledale v več kot dveh letih delovanja kluba. Prišle pa smo tudi do spoznanja, da ni treba imeti nadzora nad umetniškim procesom, v katerem sodeluješ, da v njem tudi uživaš in da ni treba razumeti vsega, da od predstave odheseš veliko. Če bi se to spoznanje materializiralo na odru, bi postalo Poésis sebstva.

CURATORIAL STATEMENT

POÍESIS OF SELF

The selection of the performance Poíesis of Self is the result of a threeyear educational process of the joint educational program for emerging artistic curators of the Glej Theatre and Bunker Institute, led by Samo Selimović. The threeyear educational practicum combined tours of performances in Slovenia with lectures by curators and selectors, as well as theoretical seminars on theatre, art, and curation processes.

The team, which evolved during the three years of the program into the Young Selectors Club, was given the opportunity to choose a part of the program of the Drugajanje festival. The selection was based on the premise that young people see and experience theatre differently, and that the program designed and signed off by a youth selection team would address the young in a different way, more honestly, more authentically, more directly than the program designed by a trained professional theater selector. The selection team appreciates this position, as it is the reason for the existence of the Young Selectors Club, a unique format in the field of culture and youth work in Slovenia, however, they have repeatedly problematized it in the selection process. In the course of the selection process, the team was repeatedly faced with program decisions of other organizations, festivals, selectors and curators, who saw »youth« selection as more simple and straightforward, preferably not too demanding and ambitious. Such a position is questionable for young theatre fans, and condescending towards young audiences. That is why the unspoken criteria a performance should not be »yet another performance for the youth« was one of the many criteria that influenced the final selection. In response to superficial interpretations of the »youth«, the Young Selectors Club invited the authors of Poíesis of Self onto the stage of The Second Gymnasium.

Choosing a performance that makes the viewer reflect on the relationship between body, space and thought, is not condescending to young visitors. A multitude of theoretical references, statements, movement inserts, and other elements provide viewers with more possible reference points than they are able to process during the performance, while their placement into the performing space forces them to continually reflect on their position in space and in the performance. From the standpoint of the selection team, Poíesis of Self raised more questions than it provided answers, and some situations on stage led to completely different interpretations and insights by different selectors. The different situations posed by the authors and the complexity of the different messages can certainly trigger uncertainty in a viewer with less theatrical mileage. Such uncertainty was felt by the young selectors at many of the performances we have seen during the 2+ years of the club. We have also come to the conclusion that you do not have to control the artistic process in which you participate, that you can also enjoy it, and that you do not have to understand everything in order to gain a lot from a performance. If this realization materialized on stage, it would become Poíesis of Self.

ŠOLA V KULTURI - IGRIŠČE ZA GLEDALIŠČE 2.0

Igrišče za gledališče 2.0 je pilotni projekt kulturno-umetnostne vzgoje za mlade, ki poskuša povezati sodobno umetnost in formalno izobraževanje z razvijanjem modelov učenja, v katerih sodelujejo umetniki. Ena izmed najzanimivejših aktivnosti projekta je Šola v kulturi in ena bo potekala tudi v okviru festivala Drugajanje.

Šolo v kulturi v Mariboru za OŠ Košana in OŠ Prestranek letos vodita Teja Bitenc in Tajša Perović.

CULTURE CAMP - THEATER PLAYGROUND 2.0

Theater Playground 2.0 is a pilot project of cultural and artistic education for the young, which aims to integrate contemporary art and formal education through the development of learning models involving artists. One of the most interesting activities of the project is Culture Camp – there will be one such Camp organized also within the festival.

This year's Culture Camp for primary schools Košana and Prestranek as part of the Drugajanje Festival is led by Teja Bitenc and Tajša Perović.
